

Last Call.

Have you paid your Tax in full for 1906? If not you had better get a receipt by next Wednesday, July 3rd.

Tax Collector Brooks is now preparing a final list of property for sale, which includes all personal property. Horses, Mules, Cows and House hold goods. This list will be posted at the court house and in the various townships.

Wayne Ray the well known horse-man of Asheville, was in town last week.

Children's Day will be observed at Fruitland Sunday, June 30. All are cordially invited.

Laurel Park Rink opened Wednesday night with new skates. A big crowd was present.

Miss May Boyd has returned from Converse College, and will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boyd.

T. H. Edney, who has been spending a few weeks here, left on Saturday for High Point, where he will be connected with the Elwood Hotel.

Dr. Buckner the well known eye and ear specialist of Asheville, spent a few days this week with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. N. Buckner.

The ladies started out to sell the Season Tickets for the Chautauqua on Thursday and are meeting with good success.

Miss Ella M. Bates, of Bowmans Bluff, has returned to Hendersonville after her winter absence in the South, and will remain during the summer.

With such attractions as John Temple Graves and Ben Tillman the patrons of the Chautauqua will feel they are getting the full worth of their money.

That fierce bolt of lightning, Monday, struck one of the transformers of the Light and Power Company, and put the current out of business for a few hours.

The street railway company now has a handsome shelter house at this end of the line. There are seats in it and is a decided acquisition to the car line service.

Mrs. G. Foster, wife of the editor of the New Orleans Picayune, a guest of Miss Atkinson, is suffering from a badly sprained ankle, received in a fall last Tuesday.

J. D. Artley, of Savannah, Ga., is now the instructor and floor manager of the City Rink. He is an experienced man in that line and will be of assistance to be patrons of the rink.

The Chautauqua program for this season is going to be of the finest attractions to be obtained. Great interest is being manifested and many out of town inquiries are being received.

The summer visitors are beginning to arrive in force.

R. J. Mebane, of Greensboro, was a guest of Mayor Schenck Sunday.

Mrs. Will Allison, who has been spending the winter in Newberry, S. C., has returned to Hendersonville for the Summer.

Mrs. Chas. Goodwin was successfully operated upon Tuesday, at Biltmore Hospital. Dr. Merriweather assisted by Dr. Egerton performed the operation. Mrs. Goodwin is the wife of Mrs. C. E. Wilson's brother.

John L. Orr is now laying a new sewer on Depot line. This is a much talked of and badly needed improvement. Mr. Orr started work the day following his appointment as chairman of the water and sewer committee.

Mr. Allen Bedell, who has been spending several days in the city will leave tomorrow for Hendersonville where he will spend the summer vacation with relatives.—Greenville News, June 23.

Lieut. Paul Foley, U. S. N., left on Wednesday to rejoin his ship at Hampton Roads. Lieut. Foley was called here, just as he was about to start on a three month's cruise, by the serious illness of his wife who is stopping at the Woffard House. Dr. Dean, of Spartanburg, assisted by Dr. Egerton, performed a successful operation on Mrs. Foley, two weeks ago and she is now convalescent.

On and After Date

"The City Rink" will sell 28 coupon tickets for the use of children under 15 years of age, good at both day sessions, for $2.00. These coupon tickets are transferable and good till used. One coupon admits, and one additional coupon for skates. This will enable parents to give their children the benefit of this healthful exercise during the day, at this Rink, which is being conducted as a model rink. Our instructor for both ladies and children is at your service throughout both day sessions.

D. G. Wetmur, who has been ill for four months now, is much better, although still in feeble health.

Beginning Saturday night, the City Rink will have their full brass band, consisting of eight pieces, to play for the patrons of this popular institution every night during the summer. This well known organization will play for the City Rink exclusively.

Mr. A. E. Conn, of the Raleigh News and Observer's staff, was in town Tuesday, en route to Toxaway. Mr. Conn is on a month's vacation, which he will spend in the mountains of North Carolina. He will return here on Monday and is delighted with Hendersonville and the surrounding country.

Before Squire Dermid Mrs. E. Hart sued R. I. Lowndes for possession and rents of Flat Rock property. Mrs. Hart got judgement for rents due but not for possession. The lease has still eight years to run. Case was appealed to the Superior Court.

Last Tuesday, Adrian Bennett, son of Everett Bennett, got his left hand caught in a saw at his father's mill, near Zirconia, and had three fingers cut off, and the hand badly mutilated. He was brought to town on the 1 o'clock train, and Mrs. Egerton, Roberts and Brown dressed the injury. Two weeks ago the boy's mother was injured at the mill.

ENTERED INTO REST.

A Friend's Tribute To The Life And Character of Mrs. W. C. Lyda.

On Monday June 10th 1907, angels entered the happy home of Mr. W. C. Lyda and bore away on their snowy wings the gentle spirit of his loving wife. It is hard to realize that this lovely christian woman has turned her face from the scenes of earth and the faces of loved ones and the news of her death was received sorrowfully by large circle of relatives and friends in this and adjoining states.

Mrs. Lyda had but recently entered her fortieth year. Early in life she gave her heart to God and joined the Baptist church. Her religion was of the pure kind that made her peaceable, loving and kind toward all people. She was a good neighbor and much beloved in the community where she had long resided.

The deceased left behind a devoted husband and four children, who will no more have the tender ministrations of a mother's love and devotion. All had watched, with deep anxiety, the progress of the dread malady, which finally claimed her precious life as its victim, hoping against fate, but the constant attention of loving hands could not arrest the fatal disease. Death only could bring relief and dear Mrs. Lyda now enjoys the "Rest that remains for the people of God." Her chair by the fireside is vacant now, her face will no more be seen in this world. But may her influence still live and may the dear ones who now weep for the absent one, all meet her around God's White throne, where there will be no more parting, sorrow or troubles of any kind.

When there is a smile too bright,
A heart too pure for vice,
God bearest it to realms of light
To dwell in Paradise."
